What is a Needs Assessment?

Data and Statistics

A collection of secondary quantitative data from readily available public sources, focused on youth aged zero to 24 with input from the Yolo County Office of Education

Interviews and Small Groups

Interviews centered around community partners' perspectives on the current needs of youth, the state of youth services in the county

Community Engagement

The Needs Assessment themes will be shared with community members, and youth in Round 2 engagement meetings. Feedback and input will be utilized to improve and refine the final report.

Most Requested Assets

Winters/East to Davis

Accessible Youth Enrichment Activities

Conditions in Yolo County

Yolo county has a greater share of people under 24 than the state as a whole.

Accessible Youth Enrichment Activities

Community partners say....

We need for affordable, safe gathering spaces outside of school, especially for LGBTQ

We should embed services and programs in schools - they are community assets!

Accessible transportation is a challenge - we need more satelite services

We need free and low cost after school programs

Accessible Youth Enrichment Activities

Winters/East to Davis residents say we need . . .

- Indoor sports complex
- Community, youth, or teen center
- Sports fields
- Extra curricular activities
- Open spaces and outdoor events
- Cultural center and classes
- Access to summer programs
- Arts center
- Academic tutoring
- Afterschool counseling

Youth Services and Basic Needs

Conditions in Yolo County

Yolo County is doing better compared to California in Poverty rate for those under 18

Yolo County is doing worse compared to California in Total poverty rate Median household income Home ownership rate

Of the incorporated cities in Yolo County, the City of Winters has a median household income $6,000 higher than the State median; for the cities of Davis, West Sacramento, and Woodland, the range is between $800 to $7,500 less than the State median.

Youth Services and Basic Needs

Community Partners Say...

We need stonger outreach and support for struggling youth

We need an ongoing lead to continue collaboration efforts

We need trusted liaisons to help youth connect to services

Urban and rural communities have unequal access to resources

There is a high need for flexible funding to fill in the gaps for basic needs

Youth Services and Basic Needs

Winters/East to Davis residents say we need. . .

- Bilingual classes and services in both Spanish and English
- Access to fresh produce and grocery stores
- Assistance for immigrants
- Social services that offer bilingual support
- More schools
- Affordable housing
- Walking and bike paths
- Transportation
- Family resources, bigger resource center
- Access for families to natural outdoor open spaces

Physical and Mental Health Support

Youth Conditions in Yolo County

- Yolo County has a high rate of uninsured youth aged 19 to 25, particularly in West Sacramento, Winters, and Woodland.
- Davis' highest rate of uninsured is for those under 6 (8%)

Physical and Mental Health Support

Community Partners Say...

Family support services are needed in addition to direct services for youth

Need multilingual mental and physical healthcare

Need easily accessible services in their communities

Need more diverse practitioners and culturally responsive services for youth and parents

Physical and Mental Health Support

Winters/East to Davis residents say we need....

- School counselors and after-school counseling
- Mental health services
- Wellness and mental health centers in all schools
- Urgent care

College and Career Readiness

Conditions in Yolo County

Yolo County has a lower percentage of college-educated residents and lower youth graduation rates compared to the state average.

The majority of jobs are in the service industry, which pays less and typically requires less education.

Yolo County has below-average college attendance and completion rates.

Davis as an Outlier

Davis has a higher educational attainment rate, a high median income, fewer free or reduced lunch, and fewer suspensions than the rest of Yolo County.

College and Career Readiness

Community Partners Say...

Workforce development is key, especially for folks from diverse backgrounds and cultures

Youth need to work to help support their families

Foster & youth transitioning into adulthood need employment support

Limited funding available to provide work-based learning opportunities

College and Career Readiness

Winters/East to Davis residents say we need....

- Tutors, coaches, support for students
- Youth leadership classes for job placement
- Computer classes in Spanish
- Career Center for Youth
- More jobs
- Mentorship

Accessible and Affordable Child Care

Conditions in Yolo County

Yolo County Child Care Needs Assessment

- Child care is unaffordable for lower-wage earning families
- There are not enough subsidized childcare slots for both infants and school-aged children (ages five to 12)
- We need over 10,000 additional slots to meet county requirements for needed childcare slots for working parents eligible for subsidies

Accessible and Affordable Child Care

Community Partners Say...

Affordable or subsidized child care is often not available to parents due to qualifying income thresholds

Lack of child care slots prevents parents from going back to work

Support for quality child care instruction and diverse teachers

There is an increased need for infant care along with overall capacity challenges

Accessible and Affordable Childcare

Winters/East to Davis residents say we need....

- Toddler activities
- Montessori Preschool
- Full-time childcare
- Affordable child and infant care

Discussion Questions

- 1. Is there anything that you think is missing from the key themes when you think of what is needed to help youth be successful?
- 2. Of the key themes shared, what would you prioritize as the top need in your community? What makes you think so?
- 3. In response to the key theme that you saw as the highest priority, what types of actions or solutions do you think are needed? Share your ideas.
- 4. The Board of Supervisors will use this needs assessment to guide investments to support youth. What do you want them to know about your community as they make those decisions?

370 Community Members Participate in "All In! for Children and Youth" Sessions

Community Engagement Sessions Help to Inform Asset Mapping Process

Nearly 400 stakeholders and community members participated recently in one of five sessions throughout Yolo County, and each session was bursting with optimism and creative energy! The purpose of the All In! for Children and Youth sessions was for the community to give their thoughts and ideas regarding services and resources that may or may not exist in our county, cities and neighborhoods, but are necessary in order for us to build a strong, healthy community where children and youth can thrive.
